TUESDAY EVENING, AUG., 24, 1886.

THE Democratic nomines for Governor of Tennessee, Robert S. Taylor, has resigned the office of United States Pension Agent at Knoxville. The President doesn't intend to allow any of the Federal office-holders to monkey with politics.

The Western Argus of Frankfort will be added to the list of weekly Democratic papers the second of September. Its columns will contain all news of impor-tance transpiring in the State Depart-ments as well as the latest news of the day. It will be edited by Fat McDonald formerly of the Yeoman. Terms $1.50 per annum.

J. C. Colz, Chariman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Lewis Connty has issued a call for precinct meetings to be held on September 2nd to select delegates to the county convention on the 4th which latter convention will choose a delegation to represent that county in the convention at Augusta on the 8th omninate a candidate for Congress. Judge Wall's friends express confidence that the delegation from Lewis will be solid for him.

JUDGA A. E. RICHARDS, candidate for Attorney General, spent several days here last week taking in our fair. He is engaged in a systematic canvass of the State, and is meeting with encourage-ment. The Sentinel-Democrat, of Mt. Sterling, has the following to say on the subject:

"Judge A. E. Richards is making an active canvas for Attorney General, and is meeting with eucoursgement everywhere. He has just made a tour of the countles in the pur-chase, where the people are almost solid for thin, same as in the eastern part of the State. Sensitor Cravesa, of Henry Country, a Young man of much ability, will be his competitor."

Will Bowling Be Hanged?

Will Bowling Be Hanged?

Next Friday is the day set for the execution of Jeff Bowling for the alleged murder of his step-father-in-law some time ago at Newark, Ohlo. A dispatch from Columba, Ohlo, says:

"The wife of Jefferson Bowling, who is to bang next Friday, is a daily caller at the Governor's office, and her pieutings in behalf log. The feeling, raws stronger daily that Bowling is inuo-sat of the murder of old man Douglas, and great pressure is being brought to bear upon Governor Forsker to commute the sentinee. The Governor had given the case careful consideration, and had about made up his mind not to interfere further. It is known, however, thin, as the Governor is worrying considerably about the case. The visit of Judge Hargis and Colous! Young, of Kentucky, here, and their piealings in behalf of Bowling, it is known, have made a deep impression upon the Governor, and aimost daily new friends of Bowling are coming to the front asserting their belief in his timoconce causes him to hesitate lest an innocent man should suffer."

Saturday's Enquirer says: "A well-dressed woman rushed lato the Ninth-street Station House last night, and, after stating that her name was Lou Valletta, the female detective, sald she had been threatened by some persons, and that iter life was in danger. She taiked with Inspector Hadley some time and then departed. An hour or so later she returned. It was then discovered that she was quite insane. She said that her name was Lou Ramsey, and that her home was in Mayaville, Ky. After a rambling conversation it was discovered that she feared that she feared that she feared that she feared that she was about to be assassinated because she was taken for some female detective. Her aunt had two arms, she claimed, that was why they wanted to kill her. She was locked up for asfe-keeping."
